PASTOR'S MESSAGE

Dear parishioners,

This weekend we are called to meditate on the Sermon on the Mount (the Beatitudes). It has been called the Compendium of Christ's Doctrine, the Magna Carta of the Kingdom, and the Manifesto of the King. In other words, it is the very heart of Jesus' teaching to His disciples. From the beginning, we can see the importance of this speech: "When he saw the crowds, he went up the mountain" In the Old Testament Moses went up the mountain to received the Old Law. Jesus going up the mountain brought to the mind of his follower the image of Moses. Jesus then would say: "Do not think that I have come to abolish the law or the prophets. I have come not to abolish but to fulfill" "You have heard it was said... but I say to you..."

Jesus began to teach "when He had sat down" When a Jewish Rabbi was teaching officially, he sat to teach. We still speak of a Professor's chair or the Bishop's cathedral or the pope speaking ex cathedra, that is, from his seat. Often a Rabbi gave instruction when he was standing or strolling about; but his really official teaching was done when he had taken his seat. So, the very intimation that Jesus sat down to teach his disciples is the indication that this teaching is central and official.

"And He opened His mouth, and taught them, saying..." In Greek, this phrase has a double meaning: 1) When used for a solemn, grave and dignified utterance; as for example when saying an oracle. 2) When people really open their hearts and fully pour out their minds, teaching with no barriers in between. The very use of this phrase indicates that the Sermon on the Mount is the grave and solemn utterance of central things. It is the opening of Jesus' heart and mind to those men who were to be his right-hand "You are the salt of the earth... You are the light of the world..."

"Blessed are THE POOR IN SPIRIT... Blessed are they who MOURN... Blessed are THE MEEK... Blessed are they who HUNGER and THIRST for RIGHTEOUSNESS... Blessed are THE MERCIFUL... Blessed are THE CLEAN OF HEART... Blessed are THE PEACEMAKERS... Blessed are they who ARE PERSECUTED for the SAKE OF RIGHTEOUSNESS... Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you [falsely] because of me..."

Let us ask our Blessed Mother to give us the strength to live according to these standards.
Fr. Gaston Giacinti, IVE.

GOSPEL Matthew 4.12-17 of Sunday Feb 1

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain; and after he sat down, his disciples came to him. Then he began to speak, and taught them, saying:

"Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Blessed are the merciful, for they will receive mercy. Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. "Blessed are you when people revile you and persecute you and utter all kinds of evil against you falsely on my account. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward is great in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the Prophets who were before you."
